1. The Power to Alter the Course of Another Aspect of Yourself

A separated person sees everything in isolation. It is a disjointed reality. Christ sees everything and everyone as part of the whole. Here is our first scenario.

'You arrive at your appointment 15 minutes early. As you walk through the parking lot, you notice someone looking around on the ground. Not knowing what he's looking for, you say hello and ask if he might need any help. You find out that his name is Javier and that he's looking for change to help him get on the bus and go to a job fair the city is having today. As Christ, you silently bless Javier and give him enough money for the fare and even a cup of coffee before his interviews start. You then wish him good luck and watch him board the bus at the nearby bus stop.'

(Debrief)

A person practicing Christ awareness or Christ consciousness would emit a blessing to Javier in the now. Fully embodied Christ can bless Javier now and have it extend into future nows. The blessing is different and much more powerful. Christ did not ask for a miracle. Christ created one.

Javier arrived at the job fair, got a cup of coffee, walked into the conference room, and was offered two jobs on the spot plus assistance with housing, transportation and health care. Javier is part of the OneSelf. He is another aspect of the one who helped him get to the job fair.

2. The Power to Stop Suffering

"Suffering takes on many forms that range from a mild headache to severe and debilitating emotional trauma that can cripple or even derail a life journey. This is scenario two."

'A relative visits you and mentions that she's been experiencing lower back pain. On some days, she can manage and tolerate it but on other days, she needs pain medication. There have been times when she has not been able to get out of bed and has been unable to participate in her regular activities. This has affected her relationships with her children and co-workers.'

(Debrief)

"As Christ, this is what you know. There is much that you don't know. You don't know with certainty if the pain has an emotional component, a physical cause or some of both.

Just by listening to her, your energy is creating miracles by encouraging the acceptance of the situation, as difficult as it can be, in the now. When you physically leave or when the call or texting discontinues, the pain can become the focal point again, if you were at the Christ Awareness or Christ Consciousness levels of development.

As a fully manifested Christ, your blessing has the power to extend from the now into future nows. She may feel inspired to research lower back pain, join a walking group, learn more about her emotional limits and triggers or get professional help. Christ energy is helping her to grow by discovering more about her own mind-body connection. This was a very powerful blessing indeed."

3. The Power to Alleviate Need

A disaster has unfolded in part of the world and the aftermath is being broadcast across media platforms. You are not directly affected. What is known is layered as there are many moving parts. There are many unknowns. There seem to be a large number of souls involved, both directly and indirectly."

(Debrief)

"Your prayer is an extension and should begin with "May". First, direct energy to those in immediate medical or physical need. Second, direct energy to the friends and family of those directly affected. This will involve emotional comfort and eventual acceptance. Your response as Christ is layered and because it is coming from a place of power, it will extend into future Nows. You are literally acting as a spiritual 911 operator, sending spiritual first responders to the scene. Your prayer only needs to be expressed once and we will take it from there. This type of a power prayer is far superior to a cry for help. God knows exactly what is needed because all are part of God.

4. The Power to Grant Wishes and Desires

Knowing that everything, yes, absolutely everything is a teaching device to bring all souls closer and closer to the realization of their true identity and further away from their small identities, this one could be tricky. You don't want to do any harm. You can't do any harm with your power. It's impossible. Frankly, many things that your sisters and brothers say they want, will either harm them or someone else. At the very least, it may create further delay towards moving forward and we don't have time for that any longer.

Let's take a look at the following scenario and then we will discuss it.

'Dewayne is a neighbor. He is high school aged, and he has been into basketball since anyone can remember. He is not only a fan of the professional players but he himself plays on his school's team. All he talks about, all he has ever talked about, is playing professionally. Dewayne's hard work and dedication has paid off. He is very athletic and talented. In fact, he is considered a star player who makes a lot of points each and every game.'

(Debrief)

Knowing that you have the power to grant wishes and desires, you simply are not sure if being a professional basketball player is the best thing for Dewayne or for his friends and family. A good prayer for Dewayne is that he enjoys his time playing Now and in future Nows. And that he be able to accept possible disappointment in future Nows, then being able to redirect his love for the game into other channels. Maybe Dewayne's future Nows don't include basketball in the way he thinks it should Now. Your blessing will enhance possibilities but not limit them.

All your blessings have the power to enhance someone's life Now and in future Nows without placing any kind of limitations on them. Dewayne would scream up and down that being a professional athlete simply must happen, but that may not be in his soul's life plan and may not be in his best interest either. In fact, this could be a limitation and burden, so your blessing will not include Dewayne's ultimate wished upon outcome. Your blessing will affect future outcomes however because if Dewayne could become less concerned with outcome, he may enjoy basketball more. And if that happens, he can enjoy many future Nows, even if he didn't order what's in them. Let's keep this kind of thinking in mind with the next scenario.

A Shock to the System 5

5. The Power to Enhance

Mia is a single mother with two small children who are not yet school aged. She works at a fast-food restaurant while her sister cares for her children. Mia receives public assistance to help with food, diapers and rent subsidies. Mia's car is shared with her sister, and it is on its last legs. Mia wants to start classes to be a nurse, but she hates to burden her sister by asking for more babysitting time.

(Debrief)

This is a situation where there's a lot going on and there's even more going on than I told you about, but let's focus on this much of the picture. How can your blessing enhance Mia's Now and future Nows? How can your blessing do this even if you knew nothing about Mia?

Your Now focused blessing for Mia, whether you know any of these details or not, is that she be at perfect peace and acceptance of the situation as it is currently and that she feels emboldened in her choices and not let any perceived limitations stop her from exploring in her future Nows.

If Mia can feel enough confidence to make that first step to reach out to get some information about nursing programs, then not only can her life change but those of her children as well. Your blessing will produce the miracle of enhancement, which is what is needed.

6. The Power to Change Situations

(Scenario)

'Abdul absolutely hates his job. He has been there for many years and can do the required tasks blindfolded. He has never had strong relationships with his coworkers or management. They keep him on the payroll because it's easier than hiring someone new.'

(Debrief)

You can see clearly that Abdul is staying at this job because he's afraid to leave it and find something new, perhaps something in another line of work that he may really love. A Christ driven blessing for Abdul is that he starts to tell the truth for what may be the first time. Truth telling always leads to changed situations and they always change for the better.

Your blessing can't make Abdul start to tell the truth, but it will stay with him until he does and then it will support him in his truth in future Nows. If he can move towards truthfulness, who knows what other areas in his life can have the truth revealed? The sky is the limit. This will be a true miracle for Abdul.

7. The Power to Know and Trust

(Introduction)

Let's go back to Mia's example again. Our prayer, our blessing is that Mia takes a fearless risk and will be willing and open to investigating possibilities. In her area, there are a handful of different types of nursing programs. These programs are well experienced in working with the issues Mia faces. They can help with financing, exploring on-line options, and some even have drop-in childcare during class times, so as not to stress Mia's relationship with her sister. Your blessing will help Mia to be confident in her knowing that she is making the right decision for herself and her family, and to trust that everything will work out in the end and along the way.

Here's another example for the power to know and trust.

(Scenario)

'Samuel's on-again, off-again girlfriend has just informed him that she is pregnant and there is a possibility that the child is his. He is 18 and just graduated from high school. He hasn't made plans to go to college and only works part time. Samuel feels angry and terrified. He doesn't think he's ready to be a father and doesn't want his parents to find out about this situation.'

(Debrief)

What will your blessing for Samuel's Now and future Nows entail? It is simply the willingness to put aside his understandable feelings and meet the situation head on and let the chips fall where they may. A paternity test would be a good first step and wisdom surrounding caution about jumping into a marriage he doesn't feel ready for. This is what your blessing can provide.

A Shock to the System 8

8. The Power to Explore

(Scenario)

'Kate has been married to her high school sweetheart for 28 years. Their two children are grown adults now and are fully independent. Kate's husband is Pierre. She suspects that he is having another affair. There have been several. The dishonesty of sneaking around behind her back is the thing that bothers Kate the most. Kate has wondered what it would be like to live on her own and start over again but the idea of moving and going through a divorce fills her with dread.'

(Debrief)

Like Abdul, Kate needs to start some truth telling, as painful as it will be. This will free her now and a free Kate Now can be free in future Nows if she will embrace her truth. The truth will set Kate free, and your blessing has the power to encourage her to do just that.

We can't make Kate leave her husband or do anything, but a powerful blessing will await her when she's ready to claim her freedom from herself and all the dishonesty she has been accepting of from Pierre and from her own unwillingness to acknowledge her own feelings.

This blessing will be a mighty powerful one indeed.

A Shock to the System 9

Wednesday, July 21, 2021 7:10 pm

9. The Power to Invest

(Scenario)

'Alejandro sends money to his family every payday at one of the facilities set up to do so. Alejandro's family is in Mexico, and they depend on these funds to pay for their basic needs. The problem is that Alejandro cannot afford to send as much as he has been. There is little left over to pay for his own needs, working as a day laborer.'

Give some creative thought to what your blessing will provide in Alejandro's Now and future Nows.

(Debrief)

Clearly, Alejandro believes that giving should hurt and should be a sacrifice, so our blessing will be for Alejandro to put his oxygen mask on first before he tries to support his family in another country. The truth is that if Alejandro has $10 that is truly extra, then he can afford to send 10% of that, which is $1.00, not the hundreds he is currently sending.

Caring for others is wonderful and should be applauded, but the current mindset of giving until it hurts is not actually a spiritual principle. The power to invest in ideas based in truth is a wonderful blessing.

10. The Power to Manifest

(Scenario)

'Mae is a real estate broker from China. She is on holiday in Europe. She receives a call from home alerting her that there is suspicious account activity on one of her credit cards. Things like this tend to derail Mae. She gets nervous and spends hours on the phone, unsuccessfully trying to address the situation. Mae wants to call off the rest of her trip and just go home because she is so frustrated with her credit card company and the fraudulent activity.'

(Debrief)

This is a real-life situation that many have encountered. Fear has a way of permeating the current Now and derailing a long-planned trip. What does Mae need first and foremost right now? What will she need in future Nows?

If you said, "clear thoughts", you're right. Mae needs to breathe, try to relax and not let fear and panic run the show. Your blessing has the power to manifest right action Now and in future Nows for Mae.

Conclusion to A Shock to the System, Part One

Thursday, July 22, 2021 4:48 am

These scenarios will be the most important part of Christ training. Discovering exactly how blessings want to flow is crucial. We aren't magically making problems disappear. No one would learn if we did. We are enhancing likelihoods, that's all. If there are clogged drains (and there are plenty of them), then Christ is like a plumber.

We don't walk on water, and we don't raise the dead. What we do is help our brothers and sisters to get back into the flow of life. We aren't fixing anyone. We aren't saving anyone. We are only helping them, and they still must be willing to accept the help.

If Christ is lending a helping hand, then you can be sure that miracles await. There will be further sets of more complicated scenarios further down the line and these will not have an answer key, so get ready. Expect these later this year.
